Small Group Questions

1. The Church of Corinth was spiritually disoriented and disabled because they valued the world's rights instead of the Kingdom of God. This was evidenced by the lawsuit. How might we be disoriented or disabled by valuing the world's rights? How might this be evidenced in our lives, in our church?
2. Imagine your brothers and sisters in Christ had a dispute among themselves. Imagine they asked you to judge their dispute. How would you go about it? What biblical guidelines would secure you?
3. In the conclusion to this morning's message I mentioned many rights which we hold as citizens of the USA which we should not count too precious as Christians. I don't mean to teach that Christians should not speak for these things as citizens of a nation. How should a Christian balance speaking out for right and justice in their nation when their ultimate citizenship in the Kingdom of God?
