Small Group Questions

1. Like for Israel, God is always providing for us. What are some of the many things He is always providing? What are some of the things we might prefer Him to provide?
The purpose of the following three questions is to get us thinking about the line between temptation and sin and our responsibility in that process.
2. We talked about a process from desire through sin to death this morning. What does that process look like in specific cases? Here are a couple but feel free to suggest your own for discussion – lying, stealing, cheating, violence . . .
3. In that same process of sin, how likely is it for a person to think they are sinning when they are still only being tempted. Give some examples.
4. Understanding this process, how far into the spectrum of temptation, luring and enticing should a Christian allow themselves to go?
