Bass Lake Camp, Prisoners of Christ,
Ephesians 3:1

For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ
Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles

Make it a priority this summer to get away from the world and spend time learning and getting close to our Lord. And of course, have fun. Be thinking about which camp might be right for you. Jr, Jr High, Sr High, primary, family, Young Adults Rally, Men and Women's retreats. Check their web site for details. basslakecamp.org

IMPORTANT, Do not register on line for the Jr, Jr High, and Sr High camps. Paper forms are coming, talk to Mike Hulsizer about the details.
We need them so we can take care of the church portion of the camp fees and arranging rides.

Camp workers are needed, Counselors especially girl counslors, Teen staff, Lifeguards, Adult helpers, cooks, maintenance, even riding around on a lawn mower all week or a day. So much to do. And so rewarding to help out and spend time with the campers. If you can help in any of these areas please see Pastor Delich or Mike Hulsizer.

Make your God and your spiritual health a priority.

Camp is a BIG deal.

Small group questions

1. In the world, there is a way to success, a ritual of the day that Balak tried to follow. What is that in our culture today? How is it at variance with God's ways?

2. How might we "straddle the fence" in limited obedience to the Lord so that we can have our worldly pleasures?

3. What are the New Testament terms under which God's people are blessed? How does that work in daily life?
