Notes

Psalm 23

<sup>1</sup> The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

<sup>2</sup> He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.

He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

<sup>4</sup> Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

<sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Small Group Questions:

1. Through the Law of Moses, God's presence was clear among the Israelites in a number of very obvious ways. How is His presence to be obvious in His people today? What can we do to make His presence in our lives clear?
2. The people of Israel were obviously set apart as God's people through a number of cultural features like circumcision and the dietary laws, among other things. How are we to be similarly set apart as members of the Body of Christ?
3. These last two messages have focused on some of God's excellent promises. What other of God's promises are precious to you?
