Notes

Psalm 24

<sup>1</sup> The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof,
the world and those who dwell therein,
<sup>2</sup> for he has founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

<sup>3</sup> Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?
And who shall stand in his holy place?

<sup>4</sup> He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
who does not lift up his soul to what is false
and does not swear deceitfully.

<sup>5</sup> He will receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

<sup>6</sup> Such is the generation of those who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah

And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

<sup>8</sup> Who is this King of glory?
The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle!

And lift them up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

<sup>10</sup> Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory! Selah

Small Group Questions:

1. The imperatives in this passage are all about separation from participation in life with unbelievers. In what areas of our lives are we often tempted to disobey these imperatives?
2. How does one draw the line between separation from unbelievers while still being around them enough to share the gospel?
3. What should "touching not the unclean thing" look like in practical Christian living?
